A Great Sunt.—The "Young Men's National Agricultural Association," rehich held the fair at Elmira a few days since, was devoted principally to two agricultural products—five engine and trotting horses. The "Association" must have realized something very handsome from admission fees, especially as they do not pay their prizes. Torrent Engine Co., of Rechester, won a prize of $300, as the most officient squirt, but they cannot collect a copper. The horsemen are so had off as the firmen in that respect. It is said that there is money in the hunds of some of the Elmirapsople but for some region or another it cannot be conxed out of their possession. The insimustion thrown out in various quarters before the fair, that the "Young Men's National Agricultural Association." was a humbug, would seem to sustain the sagacity of those who so believed.
